

Fairtrade Rice Challenge

A big thank you to everyone who bought rice at the Summer Café as we very nearly sold out on the day. This means we have helped fund secondary education for a girl in Malawi for six months.

We hope to have rice on sale again at the Christmas Café later this year. Then we could help fund a full year's education. Thank you again.

Rhondda Geekie