Closing Prayer

Who has held the oceans in his hands?

Who has numbered every grain of sand?

Kings and nations tremble at his voice;

all creation rises to rejoice.

Behold our God, seated on his throne,

come, let us adore him.

Behold our King: nothing can compare,

come, let us adore him!

Who has given counsel to the Lord?

Who can question any of his words?

Who can teach the one who knows all things?

Who can fathom all his wondrous deeds?

Behold our God...

Who has felt the nails upon his hands bearing all the guilt of sinful man?

God eternal, humbled to the grave:

Jesus, Saviour risen now to reign!

Behold our God...

I'm going to set my feet on following you

Set my feet on following you

Set my feet on following you

O my Lord

I'm going to set my mind on following you

Set my mind on following you

Set my mind on following you

O my Lord

I'm going to set my heart on following you

Set my heart on following you

Set my heart on following you

O my Lord

I'm going to set my feet on following you

Set my feet on following you

Set my feet on following you

O my Lord

How blest are those who do not stray,

led by the wicked's talk;
who will not with the sinful stand,
nor sit where scoffers mock.

The teaching of the Lord their God
they follow with delight, and meditate upon his word with gladness day and night.

They flourish like well-watered trees
set by a riverside, whose fruit matures, whose leaves remain
they prosper and abide.

The wicked, like the straw and chaff
by wind blown far away, can have no place among the just nor stand on judgement day.

The Lord will guard the righteous well,
he knows the way they take;
but doomed to perish is the way
the wicked undertake.
